

Functional design

Perfect interaction of technology and design gives components maximum added value.

- Components with lighting applications: Manufacturing of a jointless design using virtually any material such as plastic, composite, stainless steel or ceramic.
- Surfaces with integrated function for touch and gestures.
- Turning functional components into an intelligent design using various plastics.
- Reproducing virtually any real material in a surface in a wide variety thanks to in-house production and capable partners.

